Geoff, Christy and Cayden moved from Overland Park to Shawnee in August 2020.

Geoff is a district manager in retail and Christy works in insurance claims. Cayden attends Lenexa Hills online this year and will be heading to middle school in the fall.

They enjoy traveling as a family and hope to travel more in the near future.

They love their new home and neighborhood and would like to thank the Red Oak Hills community for such a warm welcome!

Notes from our resident researchers (I've added some notes for the areas we thought were confusing).

Driving tour notes:

- A. Chouteau McAnany House is located at 5311 McAnany Dr. The oldest portion of the house (shown in brochure) was demolished due to extensive termite damage. The rock portion standing was built in 1913.
- B. Just a few doors from the Fangro House is the 1891 Bousman House.
- C. Dunbar School later became the first Shawnee library. It no longer stands, but resembled the little 1889 Baptist church located south of 57th and Reeder.
- D. From Nieman, turn east on 59th Terrace just south of McLain's Bakery.
- F. The Governor's house is located at 10910 W. 60th St.
- G. The Blacksmith's Shop (just like the Wagon Master's House) no longer stands. The star mentioned in the tour is embedded in a historical marker in the parking lot of 6130 Nieman.
- I. The cemeteries are next to each other on Quivira.

Walking tour notes:

Only a few of the buildings mentioned in the walking tour are still standing. Wonderscope is no longer housed in the former Flint School.

All about the dogs...Ellie Mae Winkley

My name is Ellie Mae Winkley and my favorite things include chasing squirrels, trips to the dog park, pup cups at Chick-fil-A, and snuggling up in a warm blanket. I spent the first few months of my life in Topeka, KS, but then I met my humans, Konner and Emma, in Manhattan, KS.

I have lived in several apartments with my little family so I am very thankful for my new big backyard to explore. My mom and dad recently grew tired of not knowing what breeds make me so cute, so they had my DNA tested and were super excited when they found out I am a Blue Healer/Boxer/Lab mix. My mom tells me I am "the cutest little stinker" on a daily basis. I am one spoiled and loved pup.

When I meet new people I have a tendency to bark at them but as soon as you give me a treat I will be your best friend forever! I may even do one of the few tricks I know...sit, shake, high five, down, and stay (stay is the hardest one for me to master).

I am excited to sniff around my new neighborhood and meet my new doggy friends!

Ruff ruff, Ellie
